Personal Statement

Highly motivated student seeking a part time job opportunity to further develop my skills in communication and teamwork, along with gaining experience in the workplace. With a strong academic record and a recent scholarship achievement in computer science, reflecting my commitment to my academics and my passion for technology and problem-solving, I am eager to take on new challenges and make a meaningful impact in the workplace.

Key Skills

- Public Speaking & Creativity – The Distinction in my English Language Speaking qualification and participation in my schools Model United Nations club has not only strengthened my ability to articulate ideas confidently and persuasively but also fostered my critical thinking and diplomatic skills, enabling me to approach challenges with a creative and innovative mindset.
- Teamworking – My experience in previous roles along with my involvement in the Duke of Edinburgh has honed my ability to effectively communicate and cooperate with others in a workplace environment.
- Time management and organisational skills – As an A-level student, juggling multiple subjects demands a high level of effective time management along with organisational skills. I have honed my ability to prioritise tasks, meet deadlines, and maintain a well-organised schedule to balance academic responsibilities. These skills ensure that I can handle diverse responsibilities with precision and reliability.
